The Author of the Trust desires to create and establish a Charitable Trust (hereinafter referred to as the "trust") to establish facilities and after services in the field of Education and healthcare for the welfare of the public without discrimination of caste, creed, race, language and religion

In Pursuance of his intentions the Author of the Trust has decided to endow the said trust with a nucleus of one thousand and one rupees (Rs.1001 Only) in cash to be managed and administered by the Trustees on the terms and conditions and in accordance with the rules and regulations hereinafter set out.

The Author of the trust has requested six of his friends and relatives whom he considers responsible and trustworthy, listed hereinafter, to constitute, along with himself also as a member, a Board of trustees to hold the sum into a Trust.

The Trustees have individually and collectively agreed to administer and manage the proposed 'Trust'.

The Author of the Trust and the Board of Trustees consider that it is necessary and desirable to declare and constitute the said Trust and to record its objects and constitution:

NOW THIS DEED OF DECLARATION OF TRUST STATES AS FOLLOWS:

1) Trust Fund

The Author of the trust does hereby settle the sum of one Thousand and one Rupees, in a Charitable Trust, with the name and for the objects hereinafter started, by delivering the said amount in cash. The Trustees, to be listed hereinafter, have accepted the amount, and the receipt of which sum they do hereby acknowledge, to hold the same in and to the charitable Trust, with the powers and obligations as provided hereinafter

2) Name

The Charitable Trust continued by this deed ("The Trust") and its property (here in after referred to as "The Trust fund") shall be administered and managed by the trustees under the name Hethal Amman Charitable Trust or by such other name as trustees decide from time to time, with the approval of the appropriate government authority and confirming to the prevailing laws of the land.

AMALGAMATION

The Trustees may amalgamate the trust with another Charitable Trust or institution having similar objects in accordance with the applicable laws. The resolution to amalgamate the trust should be passed by three fourths vote in the board of trustees.

DISSOLUTION

The Trustees may at any time decide by resolution passed by at least three fourths of the trustees that the trust is to be dissolved, when it is felt that the objects are not fully achieved. The trustees will then be responsible for the orderly winding up of the trust affairs.

After making provision for all outstanding liabilities of the trust, the trustees must apply the remaining property and funds in any both of the following ways:

- i. By transfer to one or more other bodies established for exclusively charitable purposes within, the same as or similar to the objects.
- ii. Directly for the objects or charitable purposes within or similar to the objects
- iii. In the Event of dissolution or winding up of the trust the assets remaining as on the date of dissolution shall under no circumstances be distributed amongst the trustees.
- iv. The Trustees shall be indemnified against all losses and liabilities incurred by them in the execution of the trust and shall have a lien over the funds and properties of the trust for such indemnity.

In the event of dissolution the property will be attached to other trust which has same object - M. M. M.

PROCEEDING OF THE TRUST

Any defect in the constitution of the trust shall not invalidate its Proceedings.

IRREVOCABILITY

The Trust is irrevocable

RESIDUARY

For matters not provided for in these presents, the provisions of the Indian trust act and the income tax act 1961 and rules made there under will apply accordingly.

In WITNESS WHEREOF the life trustees hereto have signed this instrument on the day month and year first above mentioned.
